Glasgow Gaelic School

How was the Gaelic School set up? Can a BSL School be set up because we now have the BSL (Scotland) Act?

There will be a two-hour tour at Glasgow Gaelic School with the head teacher, Dr Donalda McComb

The Gaelic Language (Scotland) Act 2005 passed by the Scottish Parliament in 2005 is the first piece of legislation to give formal recognition to the Scottish Gaelic language.

It is a good opportunity for YOU to come along and find out more about the Gaelic School
